THE NEARER VIEW

Seek not in distant visions far removed,
Or unknown tasks thy strength has never proved

To fill, in God's great plan, your humble part;
But take this lesson deeply to your heart:

Content to fill our own life's little sphere
With all the good we can while we are here

Lifts e'en the meanest tasks within our lot
Up to a realm where longings vain are not,

And builds, for great or small, a vision grand
Where kings and monarchs e'en might wish to stand.

Neither worldly wealth or tyrant's power
But sweet content is life's richest dower.

—Fletcher Davis, in Galveston News.

Base Ball and Bees

The Devine ball team came to town Thursday and, like the King's soldiers who marched up the hill, turned right around and marched right down again, they went right back home again, beaten by the magic numbers of 9 to 6.

The game was started at Gilliam's, where Hondo had prepared a nice ball park, but about the fourth inning a "hill-billy" driving a Ford backed into a nice, live bee hive, and things began to happen in nice large numbers. Suffice to say that the crowd didn't tarry, and as the bees seemed bent on having the entire vicinity, the crowd adjourned to the plaza to finish the game.

Bradley pitched a nice heady game and deserved to win, but the players of both teams certainly hit the ball. Devine made 8 hits, while Hondo made 9. L. Redus made 3 of Devine hits, while de Montel did the same for Hondo.

Altogether, it was a nice, interesting game—both sides trying hard. Each side made about a half dozen misques. Batteries: Devine, Crutchfield and Crawford; Hondo, Bradley and Goff. Hondo will journey to Brackett to play a double-header on Labor Day.

The Great War.

The greatest war of history is taking place in Europe. More than half the earth's population is directly concerned, and the other half is under the shadow cast by this world conflict.

No other war approaches it in numbers of men involved, in the tremendous sacrifice of life and property that the Nations are making, in results that will spread to the remotest corners of the earth.

It is an epoch in history that for suddenness and for stirring events stands alone. Those who are alive today will remember the great war always as the most remarkable spectacle of their lives. They will recall what they read of their battles where armies as large as small Nations fought on a front miles and miles in extent. The stories of conflict, of heroism, will never leave the memories of this generation.

For the story of this war as it is being written Texans must turn to their newspapers. The Galveston Daily News and The Galveston Semi-Weekly Farm News have the sources or world news at their command. At a nominal cost the reader has collected and arranged for him on the printed page the record of this momentous struggle.

Every Texan can keep thoroughly informed on the progress of the war by reading the newspapers named above.

A Pretty Good World.

This world's a pretty good sort of world.
Taking it altogether.
In spite of the grief and sorrow we meet,
In spite of the gloomy weather,
There are friends to love and hopes to cheer,
And plenty of compensation
For every ache for those who make
The best of the situation.

There are quiet nooks for lovers of books,
With nature in happy union;
There are cool retreats from the noon-tide heats,
Where souls may have sweet communion;

And if there's a spot where the sun shines not
There's always a lamp to light it.
And if there's a wrong we know ere long
That heaven above will right it.

So it's not for us to make a fuss
Because of life's sad mischances,
Nor to wear ourselves out to bring about
A change in our circumstances.

For this world's a pretty good sort of world,
And he to whom we are debtor
Appoints the place and supplies the grace
To help to make us better.

—Tid-Bits.

TRY this paper one year for one dollar.

It is always wisest when you have nothing to say to say it!

THE chronic fault finder never runs out of a job for lack of material!

THE Youths' Companion wisely observes that you can not gain ground by eating dirt.

THE price of cotton goes steadily downward while the State Legislature continues to play politics.

FROM serious things we faint would be excused;
'Tis the passion of all to be amused!

HAND us a dollar and have this paper sent to you for one year. There will be something doing in every issue and each copy will be worth the price of a year's subscription.

THE German army has met with a great many more obstacles than it expected on its march to Paris and every indication now is that the European war will be a long drawn out and destructive affair.

NOMINEE Ferguson declines to take up the time of the Legislature in making a speech before it while the country is suffering for legislation which it should pass. A level headed man is that Ferguson.

ONE of the best trade getters for any town is the reputation for being a good market for farm produce. It is the farmers' patronage upon which the town in a farming community must depend for its prosperity, and his market for his produce should be carefully guarded by his local merchant.

THE Austin American thus keeps a line on the press:—The Washington Herald vouches for the story that the wife of an Alabama man named Triplett presented him with twins the other day, and the local editor went crazy in trying to decide whether to call them Triplett twins or the twin Triplett.

HAPPY MOTHERHOOD

The happiness of motherhood is often checked because the mother's strength is not equal to her cares, while her unselfish devotion neglects her own health.
It is a duty of husband or friend to see that she gets the purest medicinal nourishment in Scott's Emulsion, which is not a drug or stimulant but nature's concentrated oil-food tonic to enrich and enliven the blood, strengthen the nerves and aid the appetite. Physicians everywhere prescribe Scott's Emulsion for overworked, nervous, tired women; it builds up and holds up their strength.
Get Scott's at your nearest drug store.

You will find the right place to trade by consulting our advertising columns.

In times of panic—if ever more than at all times—people should put forth their utmost effort to meet their financial obligations. If the man who owes money that he can pay will pay it cheerfully and not hound it up he will help his creditor to meet his obligations who, if he will keep it up, will set that much money to work in an endless chain system of relief and soon others, catching the spirit, will forget that money is tight and hard times will be forgotten in a new era of prosperity. Don't hoard your money if you have obligations that are due, but get busy and pay your debts.

THE paper this is printed on has advanced nearly half a cent per pound in the last six weeks. Unlike the merchant, who, when sugar goes up gives fewer pounds for a dollar, we must continue to give the same paper for a dollar a year. Subscription rates can not be made to fluctuate with the cost of paper so the newspaper man must bear the loss himself. This throws a heavy burden upon the newspaperman. The Anvil Herald calls attention to this merely to show that we are all more or less in the same boat when it comes to suffering from the effects of the war, and to suggest that the paper should be remembered along with other obligations at settling-up time.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

ACKNOWLEDGE IT.

Hondo Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Endorsements Prove It.

After reading the public statement of this fellow-sufferer given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which proved so beneficial years ago, with the kidneys can naturally be expected to perform the same work in similar cases. Read this:

George W. Curtis, Pearsall, Texas, says: "It was about two years ago that my kidneys became disordered. I believe the trouble was brought on by horseback riding, in connection with bad drinking water. I tried different remedies, but did not get good results until I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They regulated the passages of the kidney secretions and my kidneys became normal. I gladly confirm the statement I gave some years ago, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Curtis had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Names of Honorable Origin.

The surname Mouse denoted at first a man of great courage; while Mr. Rait got his name from the fact that the first bearer of the name was a wise person, who gave "counsel" to the king.

Acute Indigestion.

"I was annoyed for over a year by attacks of acute indigestion, followed by constipation," writes Mrs. M. J. Gallagher, Geneva, N. Y. "I tried everything that was recommended to me for this complaint but nothing did me much good until about four months ago I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them from our druggist. I soon realized that I had gotten the right thing for they helped me at once. Since taking two bottles of them I can eat heartily without any bad effects." Sold by All Dealers.

A TROLLEY CAR INCIDENT

By INEZ BARON.

(Copyright.)

The woman looked up, her forehead puckered in a troubled frown.

"I-I seem to have lost my purse," she said, with some degree of embarrassment. "I had it when I started, but I must have dropped it somewhere."

The young conductor stood uncertainly for a moment, his hand on the fare-lever.

The woman was beautiful, well dressed, and evidently, from her voice and bearing, a gentlewoman. There seemed only one thing to do.

"Very well, madam," he was beginning, when a stout, red-faced man in the next seat burst into a disagreeable laugh.

"Same old graft, conductor," he said, with a coarse wink, diving one hand into his trousers-pocket; "but they always get away with it, the dears!"

The woman flushed scarlet, and edged away from him, her face showing plainly the aversion and disgust she felt at his words and action.

"Will you pay my fare for me, conductor?" she asked.

"Certainly, madam," replied the young man courteously. He ignored both the nickel proffered by the red-faced man and the latter's sneering remark, drew five cents from his waistcoat-pocket, and transferred it to his coat. Then he rang up the fare and moved on.

"What is your name, please, conductor?" said the woman, putting a detaining hand on his arm.

It was the young man's turn to flush.

"That isn't at all necessary, madam," he protested.

"Yes, it is," she insisted. "Please tell me."

"John Brewster."

"Thank you."

He passed on, and a few blocks farther along the woman left the car, giving him a pleasant nod and smile as he helped her off the step.

The red-faced man presently got up, and lounged toward the platform, giving the bell-rope a jerk.

"Here, my man," said he, holding out a five-cent piece, "take it. I can better afford to lose it than you can. You'll do well hereafter to remember that a favorite trick of that sort of woman is to beat the road, the conductor, or any one else she can stick for the price of her fare."

Brewster drew back, an angry flash in his eyes.

"I don't want your money," he said in a low tone. "But," he added, "you will do well to learn how to tell a lady when you see one. If I hadn't been wearing the company's uniform, I'd have thrown you off the car when you spoke to her as you did."

"Oh, you would, would you?" snarled the other. "Well, we'll see just how good your job is, Mr. John Brewster! I'll have you know that no whipper-snapper of a fresh conductor can insult me with impunity! You wait and see!"

Brewster thought no more of the threat and its maker until the next morning, when a summons to the superintendent's office brought it forcibly to his mind.

With a feeling of uneasiness, he complied with the order, and presently found himself face to face with the superintendent, who looked up from the pile of letters he was sorting and favored the young man with a curt nod.

"You're John Brewster?" he said; "I received a complaint against you—a man has notified me that you were insolent to him yesterday—that you threatened to throw him off the car. What have you to say?"

"I didn't exactly threaten him, sir," he said sturdily, "but I did tell him that he deserved such treatment, and if I had been out of uniform I should certainly have given it to him. He insulted a lady, sir, and it would have served him just right."

"Then you admit the truth of his story?"

"If you put it that way, yes."

"In that case, you will turn in your badge and uniform," remarked the superintendent.

"Very well, sir," responded Brewster.

He had expected either a reprimand or dismissal; but at the same time he felt that it was pretty hard to be so summarily turned off merely for acting the part of a gentleman and resenting the insolence of the red-faced man. He turned toward the door.

"One moment, Mr. Brewster," interposed the superintendent. There was a twinkle in his eye. "Courtesy is such a rare plant that we must do all we can to foster its growth. You will report here tomorrow morning. There is a vacancy in this office and I should like to have a talk with you about filling it."

"You see," he added, with a smile, as Brewster stood staring at him, too dazed by his sudden good fortune to utter a word, "I heard the other side of the story last night—from the lady. She happened to be my wife."

CLEAN NEWSPAPERS DEMAND OF PEOPLE

University to Assist in the Making of Trained Journalists.

Men who have studied the matter declare that vicious journalism is today the greatest corrupter of public opinion. "Tainted news," is becoming as common as was "tainted meat" during the Spanish war, and while the latter wrought havoc with the stomachs of our soldiers in Cuba, the former is responsible for many diseased ideas now inhabiting the minds of the great newspaper-reading public. Journalism is coming more and more to be considered as a matter of vital concern to the people as a whole—the people are beginning to demand truth of the great news-gathering and news-distributing agencies, just as they are demanding pure food, establishing departments of government to enforce this demand.

The State University of Texas has fortunately recognized the need of trained men to serve the people in the capacity of news-gatherers and news-interpreters, and has established this year a School of Journalism, where the highest ideals of the profession will be inculcated, and where young men and women of the state with a bent for this line of work will have the opportunity to secure this training which is so essential to the welfare of the State.

The newspapers of Texas are excellent, and they have built up in Texas an enlightened public opinion, but the need for trained journalists, (preferably Texans) is growing every day more urgent.

Hon. Will H. Mayes, a successful newspaper man, who has spent his life maintaining the best traditions of Texas journalism, has been selected by the University authorities as head of the new school. It will be open for students in September.

Reformatory for Young Men Needed

Youths of 17 and 25 Should Be Separated From Hardened Criminals.

The speech of C. S. Potts, a Texan, before the Prison Reform Congress at its last meeting in Memphis, Tenn., is considered by those who heard it as one of the most thoughtful contributions of recent years to the problem of prison reform.

He pointed out the startling fact that there are 1,500 young men between the ages of 17 and 25 in the penitentiary of Texas today, one-third of whom are white. These are formative years, the years when young men are preparing for life work. Under the present system these young men are worked upon the State farms—trained, if trained at all—to become farmers. But Mr. Potts points out that most of these young men come from the city and will return to the city where their agricultural training will be useless.

"They should be taught trades," he says, "that will make them useful citizens when discharged."

To this end he advocates the establishment of a reformatory for the criminally-disposed youth between the ages of 17 and 25; otherwise, there is danger of converting these misguided youths into hopeless criminals. Mr. Potts has made an especial study of Criminology in all its phases. He occupies the position of assistant Dean of the law department of the University of Texas.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst."

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

taste like candy. They are soothing and very easy in action. They do not cause griping, nausea, purging or excessive looseness. They tend to tone and strengthen intestinal nerves and muscles. They promptly relieve constipation, and help to permanently overcome it.

Rexall Orderlies promote better spirits and better health. In all of these things they are vastly superior to old-fashioned, harsh salts and other purgatives, which are not only unpleasant to take but which usually leave the bowels in worse condition than before. We particularly recommend Rexall Orderlies for children, aged and delicate persons. In vest-pocket tin boxes, 12 tablets 10c, 36 tablets 25c, 80 tablets 50c. Sold only at

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Program to Be Followed at the Annual Meeting at Hondo For Five Days Inclusive

SEPTEMBER 7-11, 1914

County Superintendent's Announcement.

The Legal County Teachers' Institute for the white teachers of Medina County and Independent Districts of Hondo Devine and D'Hanis will convene at Hondo, Texas, at 9 a. m., Monday, September 7th, and continue in session for five full days.

Every teacher who teaches or expects to teach in Medina County is earnestly requested to be present at the opening of the session of the first day. Come prepared and prove yourself a progressive, wide-awake teacher. Come to improve yourself and thereby benefit the people of Medina County, who are beginning to realize the great needs of our schools. This is true not only of the Independent Districts, but of the Rural Districts as well, where the people have voted bonds and local maintenance taxes in order that their children may have better school houses and facilities.

The Institute is held for the benefit of the school children of the county and for the advancement of the cause of education in Medina County. Therefore, put your talents and energy into the Institute that you and others may become more proficient in the teaching profession. The teacher who is careless and disloyal to his profession is not a true teacher and is not giving his pupils, patrons nor the county a "square deal".

A small registration fee will be charged each teacher to help pay the expenses of prominent educators of the state who were called to address the teachers of Medina County. Should there remain a balance it will be applied to the Medina County Teachers' Library Fund.

The State Superintendent recommends Charter's "Teaching the Common Branches", and Horn's "The Best Things in Our Schools" to be used by the Institute. These books may be bought from C. A. Bryant & Co., Dallas, Texas, for Horn's text, and Southern School Book Department, Dallas, Texas, for Charter's text. In addition thereto I suggest that the books adopted by the Texas Reading Circle be studied. All these are thoughtful, carefully written books and should be studied by the teachers.

Trustees, patrons, Mothers' and Parents' Clubs, students of the High Schools and friends of the Institute are cordially invited to attend, submit questions and take part in all discussions.

The following committees are hereby appointed, of which the first named is chairman:

Committee on Local Institutes, Prof. L. H. Kidd, Prof. Peterson, Miss Thornton, Miss Dugan and Prof. Kennedy.

Committee on Resolutions, Prof. T. C. Hickman, Miss Langford, Miss Gable, Miss Garrison and Prof. Meadows.

HIT SOME ONE MIGHTY HARD

Originator of Most of Settlement's Gossip Is Not Dismayed by Minister's Scathing Remarks.

The minister of a large parish who had for some time been much troubled by the scandalous gossip that seemed to be occupying the minds of a portion of his flock, after exercising a great amount of tact and perseverance, at last succeeded in running to earth the originator of most of the settlement's society slander.

The guilty one was a regular attendant at the schoolhouse services, and the minister knew that should he take him to task personally and individually, he would inevitably lose a sheep, albeit a black one, so he decided to sermonize him.

Accordingly, a special discourse was prepared, and the following Sunday afternoon literally hurled at the offending member as he sat on a desk in the corner of the schoolroom.

Everybody present appeared fully to appreciate the situation, and at the close of the service departed quietly and thoughtfully for home.

All except the black sheep, who remarked to the minister:

"That wer' a fine sermon, ser; I'll bet that hit some of 'em pretty hard."

Extravagant Conqueror.

"They, vat is dot book you're readin'?" asked Ike's father.

"Aboudt Chulius Caesar, fader."

"Und vet business vus he in?"

"He was a soldier and ven he von a battle-he writed home, 'Vedi, vedi, vedi.'"

"I bet he vent bankrupt—such extravagance! Vy he could send seven more vords for a kvarter."—Livingston Lanes.

DEALING IN FUTURES.

Mr. Acker—That's right; calculating how much you have spent on your spring outfit, are you?

Mrs. Acker (calmly)—I am making up my appropriation for summer dresses and hats.

An Innocent Victim.

"This food problem is something awful!" exclaimed the querulous man.

"Still harping on the high cost of living?"

"No. My wife has decided to reduce her weight. I wouldn't care what food cost if she would only consent to buy it."

Hopeless.

"Is there any public man who really meets with your full approval?" asked the weary listener.

"No," replied Mr. Growcher; "years ago I gave up trying to decide which man I liked most. I went ahead and voted for the one who displeased me least."

Sam's idea.

"Sam!"

"Yes, boss."

"I read in the paper today that an electric burglar alarm has been adapted for the chicken coop. What do you think of that?"

"Why, I sees in dat, boss, a blow at de liberties of de people!"

Disgusted.

John—I see that a New York policeman is charged with mendacity.

Jim—That's the way with those high-brow officials. Always trumping up something new and far-fetched. Why don't they get after the liars an' grafters?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Comes Handy.

Redd—They say he was quite a hurdle-racer in his college days.

Greene—But what good does that do him now?

"A lot of good. Why, he says they're nearly always housecleaning at his home."

Safe Place.

Patience—This paper says that, according to scientists, not a single microbe exists in mountain air above the height of 2,000 feet.

Patrice—Good! Now I'll look up some mountain summer resort where a girl can kiss without any danger.

Looks That Way.

Belle—Has he proposed yet?

Beulah—Not yet.

"What's the matter with him?"

"I don't know; he just sits and watches me."

"Oh, I guess he believes in the policy of watchful waiting, probably."

On!

"Where is your corset department?" asked the man, consulting his wrist watch, as he entered the department store.

"For your wife, I suppose?" suggested the floor-walker.

"Excuse me, sir, I have no wife."

REAL INDIAN IN MUTUAL MOVIES

DARK CLOUD, A Majestic Story.

When David W. Griffith, general director for the Majestic Mutual films, wants an Indian for one of his films he does not have to ask an actor to make up for the role. He merely assigns Dark Cloud for the task, and he has a red man with a noble profile and a majestic bearing.

Dark Cloud was born in New York on the shore of Lake Champlain, though he is a full blood Abenaki of the Algonquin nation. He has been in motion picture work for five years and before that had traveled with Wild West shows and had lectured in many cities on "The North American Indian."

He is a graduate of the Carlisle Indian school.

In recent years Dark Cloud has been collecting Indian raiment until today he has a wardrobe that is the envy of all other Indian actors. He is an expert horseman, being perhaps the most skillful and graceful bareback rider in America.

TEXAS NEEDS GREAT MEN

XXXIX. FACTIONS

JULIUS CAESAR, Crassus and Pompey formed a triumvirate which ruled Rome and reaped a rich harvest off Roman civilization. It was the most powerful political faction known in human history. It destroyed the confidence of the people in the government and hastened the downfall of Rome, which resulted in plunging the world into the dark ages. Factions are always formed to reap, they never sow, and while distributing one class of property among all others, they levy a heavy tribute for their labors. A pooling of political power is the most dangerous trust that was ever formed in ancient or modern civilization.

THE ROMAN TRIUMVIRATE.

Let that country that would travel the trunk lines of progress beware of factions that chase each other, dagger in hand, across the political arena, avoid the bitter clash of classes that cause fear and consternation to roll over the land like a flood, and put out the smoldering fires of discord before they burst into flaming revolution and the iron moan of a decayed nation fills the land.

OLD PETER WAS CONTENTED

Nothing Disturbed Serenity of Baseball Umpire Until Little Son Told Wife of Mistake.

Old Peter was feeling like one big, contented smile as he stood in the glorious sunshine, arrayed in a long coat of dazzling whiteness, umpiring
the first match of the season.

Looking up he noticed that the hands of the big clock on the pavilion had crept to ten minutes past twelve, and he realized that he was getting "peckish."

His right hand felt for the packet of sandwiches which his wife had insisted—much against his will—on putting in his pocket.

Salmon and shrimp paste plastered between slices of a new bread and butter make a pleasant meal, and old
Peter felt happier than ever.

But on a sudden his brow became clouded, for, walking calmly out into the sacred field, came his small son, Billy. Headless of frowns and warnings, Bill walked up to his parent.

"Mother says she wants them sandwiches back."

"Back?" roared the indignant umpire. "I've eaten them half an hour ago!"

"Then you must clean your boots tomorrow! Mother put the polish in your sandwiches!"

Commencement Days.

"What's the matter, old man?"
"Brain fog. Been presiding at the graduation exercises of a grammar school. Had to listen to forty highbrow essays. But you seem played out, too."

"Yes; indigestion. I took in a cooking school. Had to taste forty different messes."

The Boy Who

Made Good

Just an average boy—no—he had a supreme belief in the Life that animated him. He believed that Life could do as much for him as anybody else provided he well. Sounds easy, doesn't it?

It is easy, and the results are

Andreas Hofer—The Inn-keeper Patriot of the Tyrol

TO THIS peasant-leader Liberty was as much the breath of life as it is to the strong-winged eagles of the Alps. To achieve it for himself and his mountain brothers he gladly laid down his life. No less a personality than Napoleon vanquished him, and it was because he feared him that the Great Emperor ordered Hofer shot. Every atom of Andreas Hofer loved Liberty. He demanded it for himself and willingly gave it to others. In this respect he is no different than are our thousands of Tyrolean citizens. Personal and National Liberty to those of Tyrolean blood is a religion. To a man they will fight for it and to a man they will die for it. When asked to vote for Prohibition they do as would do the great patriot Hofer—VOTE AGAINST
IT. "Thou shalt NOT eat this—thou shalt NOT drink that" is insolent legislation to those of Tyrolean blood.

Theater Has Movable Roof.

By means of motor-operated roof leaves, the Princess theater, Meriden, Miss., can be quickly converted into an open-air auditorium, or at the approach of a sudden shower the roving can be almost instantly rolled back into place while the performance goes on uninterrupted. The opening in the roof is equipped with movable leaves which travel on small rails and are operated by cables passing over a double drum gear-driven by a three-horse-power motor. The two closed cable loops are wrapped on the drum in opposite directions and each operates one leaf. The control rope, which moves simultaneously with the main leaves, has dogs mounted at the limits of its travel. These dogs operate a reversing switch which stops the motor and connects it ready for starting in the opposite direction. About one minute is required to open or close the roof, moving both leaves through their entire travel. The construction of the joints about the opening is such that the roof is thoroughly weatherproof. Motor, gears and switches are housed in roof boxes. The proprietor of the show house is well pleased with the innovation which affords him all the advantages of an outdoor open-air theater with full protection during inclement weather.—Electrical World.

"Movies" in the Churches.

Rev. William Carter, formerly pastor of the Madison Avenue Reformed church, New York, field secretary of the International Peace Forum, a member of the national board of censorship for moving pictures, has been the prime mover in establishing the Church and School Social Service organization, by which the churches have definitely entered the moving picture field to teach of the Bible missions and great historical events which have tended to the betterment of mankind. Pictures will be taken of many biblical scenes at the places where the events were transacted, so far as possible, and of the great missionary centers, and others to show "how the other half lives." Doctor Carter says the organization "is not joined with commercial interests, but is one of clergymen, educators and social service workers formed for religious and philanthropic purposes to uplift humanity through this popular and wide-spread amusement." Represented on the advisory board are the Baptist, Congregational, Episcopalian, Methodist, Presbyterian and Reformed churches, the Y. M. C. A., Boy Scouts, and the Big Brother movement.

Cast of Capable Players.

In the forthcoming reproduction of "Damon and Pythias," Herbert Rawlinson and William Worthington will play the title roles. Anna Little, the part of Calanthe, and Frank Lloyd will be Dionysius. Otis Turner will direct the big production.

Phyllis Rhodes, an actress, counts a wonderful ventriloquistic ability among her many accomplishments.

A MODEL SCHOOL CAMPUS.

An East Texas County's Contribution to Educational Progress.

Away down in the piny woods of East Texas, there is perhaps the most picturesque school campus in all the big State of Texas. This campus, located in the heart of the old and progressive little city of Nacogdoches, is both beautiful and interesting.

In 1845, the last year of the Republic of Texas, this property, now a model public school ground, was ceded by the City of Nacogdoches to the University of Nacogdoches, an institution chartered by an act of the Ninth Texas Congress. Although it was not to be a State school, Congress gave encouragement to this pioneer educational enterprise by donating four leagues of land, which gift was supplemented by land donations from such men as Thomas J. Rusk, Sam Houston and Hayden Edwards. But the patriotic dream of establishing a permanent university was not realized; and the brick building erected for the university was used from the close of the Civil War as the temporary home of the public school. This house, still in a perfect state of preservation, now stands just behind the new and magnificent public school building.

Another historic landmark is the old Stone Fort, built according to the best information in 1770, which was moved several years ago from the business section of Nacogdoches and rebuilt on the northwest corner of the campus, where it is used as a public library.

About nine years ago this fifteen-acre campus was deeded to the public schools, and in the center of the block a forty thousand dollar high school building was erected near a magnificent cluster of pine and sweetgum trees. The yards were leveled, cement walks were built, and provision was made for tennis, basketball, baseball, and similar games. And now as an ideal playground, as an example of civic pride, the large and beautiful school campus of the Nacogdoches Public School is the most unique model to be found anywhere in Texas.

TAKING CALOMEL IS A BAD HABIT.

So Powerful It Shocks Liver and Leaves It Weaker Than Before.
Dodson's Liver Tone is Better to Take.

Nearly everybody who has ever tried calomel has found that it gives only a temporary relief. For calomel is such a powerful drug that it shocks and weakens the liver and makes it less able afterward to do its duty than in the first place.

This is one of the reasons why W. L. Winrow guarantees Dodson's Liver Tone to take the place of calomel. Dodson's Liver Tone is a pure vegetable liver tonic that will cure constipation quickly and gently, without any danger of bad after-effects. It is guaranteed to do this with a guarantee that is simple and fair. If you buy a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for yourself or your children, and do not find that it perfectly takes the place of calomel, then return to the store where you bought it and get your money back with a smile.

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING

Mr. E. V. White, formerly chief clerk of the State Department of Education, and now an assistant in the Department of Extension in the University of Texas, in one of his recent trips met some of the principal characters in the following story:

A certain community had voted the limit of school tax. The opposition, which was bitter and uncompromising, was led by a certain old bachelor, who argued with caustic words that it was wrong in principle to tax him to educate other men's children.

The school, however, still had insufficient funds, and the next year the ingenious school ma'am, a lady of good looks and keen intelligence, hit upon the plan of giving a "box-supper," the proceeds of which were to be used in purchasing school furniture. Each young lady of the community contributed a cake. Each cake was to be sold at auction to the highest bidder, and the successful bidder, if an unmarried man, was awarded the privilege of escorting home the young lady whose cake he purchased. Interest in the contest was further increased by selling votes to determine the best cake and the most popular young lady.

Meanwhile the bachelor who had opposed the tax had been finding the pretty school ma'am mighty attractive; and as his infatuation grew his hostility to the school tax became more and more feeble. The night of the box-supper arrived and the cakes were auctioned off, the one the pretty teacher had made netting the goodly sum of $80.00. It was knocked down to the now reckless bachelor at that price. And with the cake he had won the right to see his lady home,—probably the most expensive stroll the gentleman ever took; for the teacher's home was only a scant hundred yards from the school house. The box-supper netted $159.00. The stroll netted nothing but experience, for the next year the young lady accepted a school in another section, the bachelor is yet unmarried, and a vicious school tax is still swelled by a yearly contribution unjustly assessed on a childless man.
